

SYDNEY SPORTS MANAGEMENT GROUP PARTNERS WITH NOVA EMPLOYMENT

MARCH 26, 2021

RECREATION / SPORT / VENUES / WELLNESS

With a commitment to the wellbeing of the community they serve irrespective of age, gender or ethnicity, Sydney Sports Management Group has partnered with NOVA Employment - a disability employment service.

Sydney Sports Management Group (SSMG) is an Australian privately-owned Specialist Sport Facility Management Company with over 30 years of experience owning and successfully managing a variety of Leisure and Recreation Centres.

Recreation delivery is becoming more diverse and complex and while SSMG has a broad range of operational expertise they suggest that to deliver maximum optimisation and best practice programming and to ensure a quality customer experience - a collaborative and partnerships delivery model is the future of the industry.

SSMG has a personalised management philosophy which allows them to adapt their programs and services to the needs of their partners and their communities.

SSMG Chief Executive, Richard Price notes "SSMG's vision is to create community hubs and therefore I am delighted to partner with NOVA Employment who will play an integral part in our service delivery model.

"All Australians have the right to employment opportunities, and we look forward to placing NOVA Employment applicants."

NOVA Employment Hornsby Manager, Geoff Wachter added "smart business owners are realising the benefits that come with hiring workers with disability.

"We're honoured to partner with Sydney Sports Management Group because they're an organisation that's dedicated to building a more inclusive community. It's a win-win. They get talented, hardworking employees and the workers get an opportunity to turn their love of sport into a career."
